Call

“A genuine call for any individual or group is always going to be ‘impossible’ because a genuine call is never something we are prepared to take on. It is never something that depends upon our strength and stability. Instead, it stretches us beyond our imaginations.”

~ Gordon Cosby, Seized by the Power of a Great Affection

“The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world’s deep hunger meet.”

~ Frederick Buechner

“The old and honorable idea of ‘vocation’ is simply that we each are called, by God, or by our gifts, or by our preference, to a kind of good work for which we are particularly fitted.”

~ Wendell Berry

“Putting lifestyle first is how you find a job, not a calling.”

~ Paul Kalanithi

“Those who have a why to live for can bear almost any how.”

~ Friedrich Nietzsche.

“But beware of this about callings: they may not lead us where we intended to go or even where we want to go. If we choose to follow, we may have to be willing to let go of the life we already planned and accept whatever is waiting for us. And if the calling is true, though we may not have gone where we intended, we will surely end up where we need to be.”

~ Steve Goodier
