Unity as testimony

“God should be most where man is least:
So, where is neither church nor priest,
And never rag nor form of creed
To clothe the nakedness of need,—
Where farmer folk in silence meet,—
I turn my bell-unsummoned feet;
I lay the critic’s glass aside,
I tread upon my lettered pride,
And, lowest-seated, testify
To the oneness of humanity;
Confess the universal want,
And share whatever Heaven may grant.
He findeth not who seeks his own,
The soul is lost that’s saved alone.”

John Greenleaf Whittier, 1807-1892

“All Friends, mind that which is eternal, which gathers your hearts together up to the Lord, and lets you see that we are written in one another’s heart.”

George Fox, 1657
